Evening of Reflection on Lent

Tuesday, March 12, 2019 at 6:00PM

at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, 116 Hughes St., Swoyersville

"Making Music in a Beautiful yet Wounded World"—The season of Lent invites us to accompany Jesus as he lives today in a world both beautiful and broken. He calls us to create with our lives new art, songs that speak to both the pain and the promise of our times. Join us this evening with Sr. Chris Koellhoffer, IHM as we reflect together on being bearers of hope and healing in a world full of madness and mayhem, but also music.

Cathedral Art, Music and Architecture Tour

Monday, May 13, 2019 at 6:00PM

at the Cathedral of St. Peter, 315 Wyoming Ave., Scranton

Join us for a light but elegant reception in the Cathedral rectory followed by an art, music and architecture tour of the recently restored Cathedral of St. Peter. Monsignor Dale R. Rupert, pastor of the Cathedral of St. Peter, will highlight the numerous frescoes, stained glass windows, mosaics, and other works of art which bring to life our local history. Cost is to be determined, but a discount will be offered for current Scranton NPM members.

42nd Annual NPM Convention in Raleigh, North Carolina

Resources for Selecting Liturgical Music

Monday, September 16, 2019 at 6:00PM

at St. John Neumann Parish (Holy Name Site), 1414 East Elm St., Scranton

Explore the many resources that are available to select music that meets the demands of the sacred liturgy. Danny Marx, Director of Liturgical Music at St. Gregory Parish, Clarks Green, will guide us through the process and offer recommendations for selecting the perfect liturgical music to suit the needs of parishioners as well as matching the ability of your cantors and choirs.

Creating Effective Worship Aids

Tuesday, November 12, 2019 at 6:00PM

at Holy Name of Jesus Parish, 213 West Green St., West Hazleton

Creating worship aids is a great way to foster the "full, conscious and active participation" of your parishioners. David Baloga, Director for Worship in the Office for Parish Life, will help us learn the ins and outs of creating a printed program that is both engaging and aesthetically pleasing. Information and tips for making the most of music reprint licenses will also be offered.

Programming such as this depends on NPM membership.

To become a Scranton NPM member or for more information on any of these events, please visit the Scranton Chapter of NPM website, ScrantonNPM.com, or contact David Baloga, NPM Scranton Chapter Program Director, at 570-207-2213, x. 1158.
